HANDS—BUSILY SCRIBBLING OVER A PAPER—RAPIDLY FIGURING ANSWERS TO PROBLEMS DUE NEXT PERIOD—LEAFING THROUGH TEXTBOOKS—AND OTHER BOOKS. APPLAUDING VIOLENTLY IN APPRECIATION—POINTING IN DERISION—CLASPED IN FRIENDSHIP—THESE ARE THE HANDS WE FIND AT CENTRAL. AS THE "EYES ARE THE MIRROR OF THE SOUL" SO ARE THE HANDS AN INDICATION OF OUR MORE EARTHLY SELVES—TOYING WITH A PENCIL DURING A LECTURE—JUDICIOUSLY APPLYING A SPOT OF POWDER WHERE IT DOES THE MOST GOOD—RAISED IN THE AIR TO GET THAT "PIGSKIN"—DOING ANY OF THE THOUSAND AND ONE THINGS HANDS CAN DO AT CENTRAL—THESE ARE THE PICTURES WE CARRY IN OUR MINDS—IN OUR HEARTS. AND SO WE HAVE CHOSEN FOR THE THEME OF THIS, THE FOURTH MARQUETTE HANDS.

CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1934, Catholic Central entered a new era. It was at this time that a vague-looking gathering of Freshman huddled in little knots about the campus. It has taken four years to mobilize these groups into a single unit—the class of 1938.

The first official act of that Freshman class was to elect officers—Robert Thompson, President; Robert Schumacher, Vice-President; Lillian Schreiner, Secretary; and John Joyce, Treasurer. As a class, they may have been bewildered; but they soon became accustomed to differences in routine. Both boys and girls excelled in athletics, and many of the boys were promising varsity material.

As Sophomores, they repeated the age-old story of class election—Kenneth Moser, President; Jack Dillon, Vice-President; Rita Moloney, Secretary; Bob Hill, Treasurer, and Lauranne Sweeney, Social Chairman.

It was while they were Sophomores that their dramatic ability began to manifest itself. "Apple Blossom Time" and "The Ghost Parade" included many of them. In December they sponsored the Mission Meeting. It was at this time that they bade "Bon Voyage" to Sister Augustine Marie, who was leaving as a missionary for India. Three successful roller-skating parties were given for the enjoyment of all. Thus passed the half-way mark of their journey through Central.

Juniors! They felt that Moser had been a President well worth re-electing. As his assistants they chose Anne Avelis, Vice-President; Carl Daisy, Secretary; and Mary Kalb, Treasurer.

Once again they began their social activities. The boys formed an influential group on the gridiron, and the girls as well as boys took honors for Basketball. They began to work early on the Bazaar. Junior "B" won the Big Ticket race with the largest returns in the school's history. The Junior-Senior Prom, June 11th, 1937 was one of the most successful and charming in years. They departed that June with visions of their Senior Year looming before them.

As upperclassmen they felt rather proud. The surviving 73 elected officers with great care and precision. Jack Dillon was elected President, Jeanne O'Toole, Vice-President, Marie Calvey, Secretary and Carl Daisy, Treasurer. They co-operated with the Men's Club when "Round-Up Time" came, an ice-skating party and a dance following shortly in the round of activities. The Football and Basketball teams enjoyed the most successful seasons in years.

The graduates of 1938 compose the first class to have completed the entire four years under the supervision of Father Conway.

THE JUNIORS

opened the school year with an enrollment that exceeded last year's by eight. Their accomplishments have been many. Of these the continuation of the school's paper, the "Central Hi-Lite" was probably the most important. Rita Jane Carlson was appointed Editor-in-Chief and Louis Weiser, Assistant Editor. The next major accomplishment was the organization of the Junior Girls' Club, the Tri-F's, with Ruth Schneider as President; Virginia Scholl, Vice-President; Shirley Veith, Secretary; and Genese Hayes, Treasurer. They held several matinee dances and on February 28th gave their Mardi Gras which turned out to be one of the "Top" dances of the year.

The Juniors are ably represented in the Choral Club, the Band, the Camera Club, and the oratorical and debating contests.

As to dramatic efforts, the Juniors figured prominently. In the November play, "Henry Tells the Truth", the Juniors that took part were Betty Clusserath, Margaret Ramsey, Adeline Richwalski, Virginia Scholl, and Anne Barybinski. In "Annie Laurie" Shirley Veith, Tony Tramm, Tom Manion, Tom Holman, and Hallie Mudro appeared.

In the Mission Crusade Pauline Schaertl was elected secretary and Erwin Kmiecik, Treasurer.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The first week of September found the Sophomore class returning en masse to their beloved Alma Mater, Catholic Central, full of the spirit that has conquered nations.

Certain members of the Sophomore class showed this conquering spirit when they gave a fine performance of a Columbus Day play for the school on October 2. They were requested to broadcast it the following day. Among the participants were Joseph Radigan, Robert Stewart, and James Fanta,

On December 7, the Sophomore mothers sponsored a Penny Supper, which was a success, financially and socially.

The play "Annie Laurie" presented on February 2, was another triumph for the Sophomores, as six of the major characters were of this class.

IN SEPTEMBER, 1937, an unusually large Freshman class, rivaled only by the Sophomores, entered Catholic Central. This Freshman class was soon separated into four divisions.

The Freshmen, both girls and boys, made a fine showing in sports activities. Several members of this class show promise of being developed into good Basketball material.

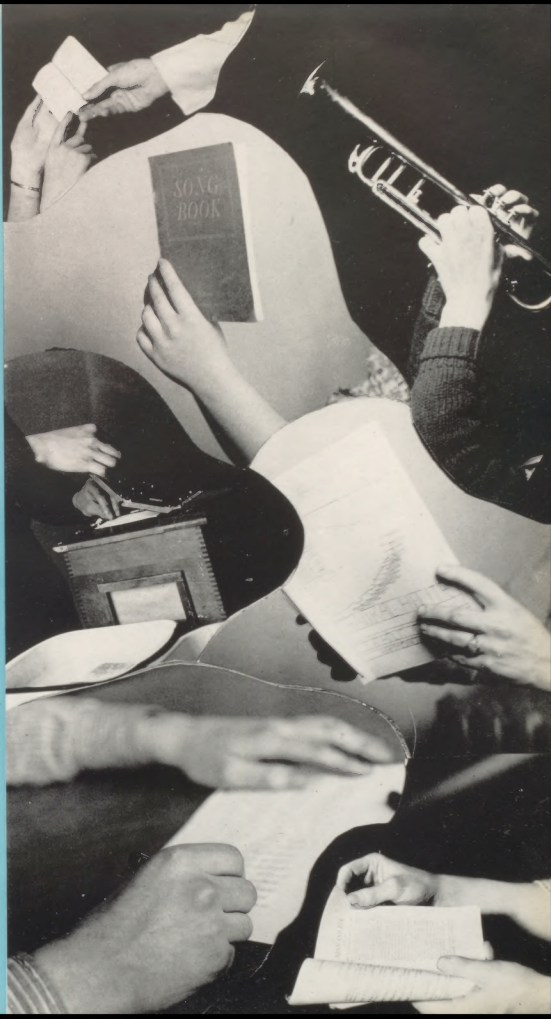

Some of the outstanding events of great importance to the Freshmen were the Hallowe'en party and the Christmas play, which displayed some hitherto unnoticed dramatic talent. It also showed the Freshman ability to make a success of their undertakings.

CHORAL CLUB

The Choral Club, an innovation of 1937, was this year even more popular and worthy of note, with the greatly increased membership, and the capable direction of Father Junk, assisted by Sister Sophia. In addition to singing the Mass frequently, the Club made several appearances in conjunction with Dramatics.

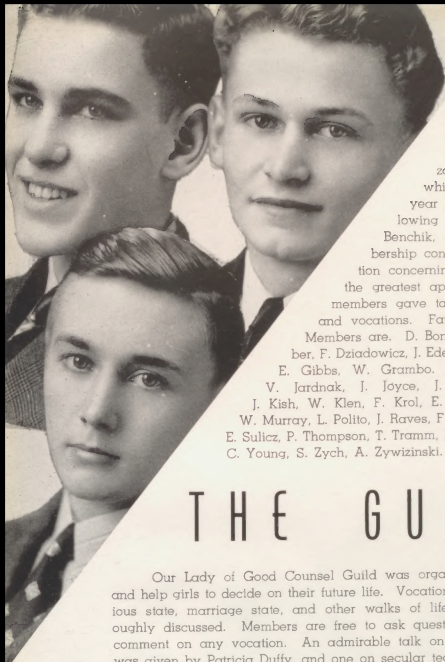

BAND

The Central Band, under the capable direction of Mr. Victor Sarvello, has made notable progress this year. Indeed, in its memorable, though few appearances, it did much to brighten up the programs of which it was a part.

Not a little of their new spirit may be ascribed to the clever new uniforms that the band is sporting. Presenting as they do the school colors of blue and gold, the uniforms cannot fail to be an inspiration to all loyal students of Catholic Central High School.

The band has increased in numbers with the addition of several new Centralites. It is to be hoped that the scheduled appearances of the Band may be increased next year.

One of Central's oldest organizations is the Sacred Heart Guild, which has completed a successful year under the leadership of the following officers; Robert Thomson, Frank Benchik, and James Schaeffer. Its membership consists of students desiring information concerning the work for which they have the greatest aptitude. At the meetings, various members gave talks on many trades, professions, and vocations. Father Conway is Faculty Sponsor.

Members are. D. Bona, H. Carlson, C. Daisy, R. Dana-ber, F. Dziadowicz, J. Eder, J. Engleton, V. Fleck, E. Fleming, E. Gibbs, W. Grambo, P. Gregory, D. Hisey, J. Hisey, V. Jarnak, J. Joyce, J. Kelly, J. Kinsock, E. Hanon, J. Kish, W. Klen, F. Krol, E. Kimecik, A. Mantel, J. McGuane, W. Murray, L. Polito, J. Raves, F. Reynolds, L. Sancya, W. Schloer, E. Sulicz, P. Thompson, T. Tramm, J. Utofka, W. Wadas, C. Wilczynski, C. Young, S. Zych, A. Zywizinski.

THE GUILDS

Our Lady of Good Counsel Guild was organized to instruct and help girls to decide on their future life. Vocations to the religious state, marriage state, and other walks of life were thoroughly discussed. Members are free to ask questions or to comment on any vocation. An admirable talk on nursing was given by Patricia Duffy, and one on secular teaching by Rita Jane Carlson. Under the sponsorship of Sister Rose Gertrude, the officers are; Mary Kalb, Patricia Smith, and Rosemary Heckleman.

Members are: C. Brady, C. Beckman, P. Brady, C. Carroll, F. Connelly, B. Clusserath, E. Domsic, R. Drapeau, L. Galik, A. M. Gnerlich, G. Hacker, N. Hall, P. Hayes, M. M. Hazel, B. Herod, M. R. Joyce, L. Kasper, A. Kuldo, B. J. Marks, J. Mathews, J. O'Keefe, L. Peters, M. F. Reynolds, P. Schaertl, J. Schilling, B. Schrepfer, A. Schust, L. Slivka, G. Stanek, M. Sulicz, M. Timko, A. Tyskowski, E. Wadas, D. Walters, E. Stilfinger, A. Wilk, C. Wilk, L. Zbikowski, M. Zimmerman, R. J. Carlson, P. Duffy.

C A M E R A C L U B

The Camera Club, a valuable addition to Central's social life, made its debut this year. With Frank Maguire, President, Rita Jane Carlson, Secretary, and Edward Fleming, Treasurer, the circle has increased its membership so that it now numbers about twenty active members. These include Gerald Backe, Bob Baker, Joseph Beckman, Marie Calvey, Edward Gibbs, Genese Hayes, Rosemary Heckleman, Thomas Holman, Edward Jaeger, Clarence Klosky, Patricia Lordier, Betty Jane Marks, Betty Jane Phelan, Jame Schaeffer, Pauline Schaertl, Laurann Sweeney, John Kelly and Walter Wadas.

Besides equipping a dark-room and inaugurating a school-wide photography service, the club has sponsored monthly contests for various types of pictures, as "Landscapes", "Sports", "Silhouettes", and "Shadows", in order to make the students "Camera Conscious".

In forming the organization, in fitting the dark-room and learning how to use it, and in everything the club has attempted, Sister Maria Consolata, Faculty Sponsor, has been a constant source of inspiration and a practical helper.

CENTRAL HI-LITE

The CENTRAL HI-LITE, sponsored by members of the Junior Class, has continued the success enjoyed by the "Junior Eye" of last year. The name, "Central Hi-Lite", was chosen in a school contest, won by Emily Wadas, Freshman. The jackets used alternately were selected in a cover contest won by Bernice Wapiennik and Rita Jane Carlson. The paper was set up by the Commercial Department.

In order to insure its financial success, the staff garnered yearly subscriptions in the Fall of 1937. Seven editions of the paper were published from October to May.

The "Hi-Lite" contains news of plays, sports, dances, and other school activities of interest to the student body. Its cartoons are not the least of its interests. The editors were, respectively, Rita Jane Carlson, Editor-in-Chief, Louis Weiser, Assistant Editor, Hallie Mudro, Feature Editor, Anthony Tramm, Business Manager, Guy Coriden, Stella Regan, Sports, Frances Connelly, Lucian Lauerman, Alumni Editors, Bernice Wapiennik, Art Editor.

The Feature Staff included Betty Clusserath, Walter Wadas, James McShane, and Tom Holman.

Business Staff, Evelyn Babinczak, Genese Hayes, Pauline Schaertl, Noel Cuff, and John Kelly.

Art Staff, Ann Bryzinski, Tom Manion.

MOTHERS' CLUB

The MOTHERS' CLUB

is an active organization of Central Mothers whose aim it is to aid the school by various activities in co-operation with the faculty and the student body. The officers are: Mrs. M. Thomson, Mrs. J. Hepner, Mrs. J. Kinsock, Mrs. G. Miller, Mrs. F. Reynolds, Mrs. J. Coleman, Mrs. Slivka, and Mrs. J. Klosky.

MEN'S CLUB

The MENS' CLUB

composed of fathers of past and present Centralites and men interested in the welfare of the school, showed its strength when it so ably produced the most unusual social affair of the fall season, "The Roundup". During the Bazaar it proved to be an invaluable aid, but the high point of all their activities was reached at the Football Banquet.

The officers are Mr. James Regan, Mr. Joseph Sabados, Mr. Stanley Wleklinski, and Mr. John Hoess.

A L U M N I

Once upon a time . . . September, to be exact, we planned: a dance, a play, a swimming party, a banquet:

Then . . . came all these things, served up by the most dutiful of committees, attended by most eager guests.

The dance was at Christmas time . . . in the holiday spirit.

The play was TWEEDLES, with a stellar cast, directed with infinite care.

A few weeks passed . . . we chose to "SPLASH". Swimming, racing, ducking, diving, and another evening's fun ended as swiftly as it began.

Once again . . . the annual Banquet to introduce the Graduates to our group . . .

FIRST ROW: Deasy, Reynolds, Schaertl, Carlson, Chusserath, Schneider, Scholl, Connelly, Heckleman, Mulloy, Bryzinaki, Lannon.
SECOND ROW: Sajdyk, Jackowski, Spilka, Joyce, Phelan, Schilling, Zimmerman, Hayes, Veith, Mudro, C. Dobosz, M. Dobosz, Garqula, Schloer, Kona, Zielinski.

TRI-F'S

The Tri-F's Club, which had its initial meeting in September of '37, was organized to meet a growing demand for more frequent and more friendly intercourse among the girls of the three Junior divisions.

The club members have displayed an unusual amount of versatility in designing their social program. They were responsible for a number of well planned Matinee dances. Their greatest success was the Mardi Gras which they sponsored in February.

The officers of the club are: Ruth Schneider, President; Virginia Scholl, Vice-President; S. Veith, Secretary; and G. Hayes, Treasurer.

C. S. M. C.

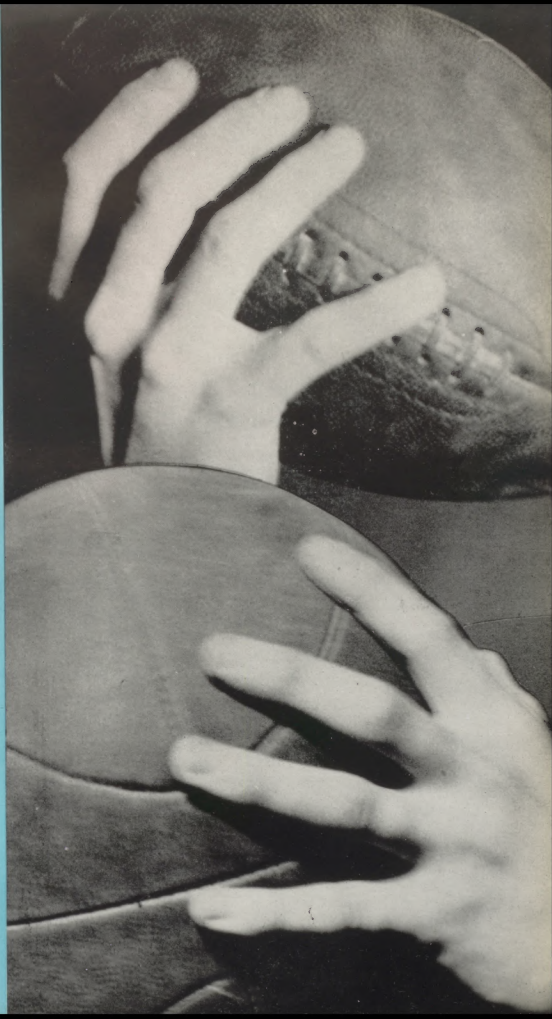

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade is one of the oldest organizations in the school. It is dedicated to the service of the missions by prayers and almsgiving.

The students renew their pledge of loyalty every first Friday of the month as a part of their devotions to the Sacred Heart. A weekly collection is taken up for the support of missionaries at home and abroad. A spiritual bouquet is also offered.

C. C. S. G.

Among the new organizations added this year to the growing list of Catholic Central's activities is the Servers' Guild, formed under the direction of Father Conway. The membership comprises a group of those students privileged to assist at Holy Mass and other Chapel ceremonies. The aim of the Guild is to aid the servers in gaining greater poise when serving Mass. Officers are: President, William Smith; Vice-President, John Coriden; Secretary, William Enright; Treasurer, William Schloer.

FOOTBALL

Great credit is due the outstanding work that has been done by our Coach, "Willie" Phillips in the past football season. Coach Phillips, a member of he 1937 All-Star team, is a graduate of De Paul University, where he was regarded as one of the best athletes in the history of the school.

At the first call for football volunteers a record crop responded. Many had to be weeded out because this was Mr. Phillips first season, and the candidates were to play only on their respective merits. The gruelling process of developing the various talent was necessary.

"Touch him on the shoulder, then tackle him"—
"All right, girls, the teaparty's over, let's play football".
Such favorite phrases could be heard floating from the football field on many of the crisp, cool days during the course of the season.

We do not profess to have had the best team in the vicinity, but we have a team to be proud of not only for ability, but for Sportsmanship.

SCHEDULE

ALUMNI

Central, with high spirits, opened the season against the Alumni on their own field by defeating them to the tune of 14-0.

TOLLESTON

On a brisk October day Central met and defeated a fighting Tolleston team. The game was played on our own field and the score was 6-0.

CLARK

A night game was played on Hammond High's field. Central suffered the first defeat of the season at the hands of Clark. Score, 12-0.

ST. HEDWIG'S

Due to injuries the South Bend team forfeited the game.

PARKER

A Chicago team challenged by Central played here one sunny afternoon. They defeated Central, 14-7.

GRIFFITH

A warm sunny day Griffith and Central met on our field. Breaking a losing streak, Central won. The score was 27-0.

ST. MARY'S

Michigan City

On a bright Sunday afternoon Central traveled to Michigan City to defeat St. Mary's by a score of 18-0.

MARMION

A night game played on Hammond High's field. Central suffered the third defeat of the season, 6-0.

THORNTON FRACTIONAL

For the closing game of the season, Central traveled to Aurora to defeat the cadets of Marmion on a wet, soggy field by a score to 8-2.

—Jack Dillon

FIRST ROW:— Enright, McCarthy, J. Daisy, Joyce, Fleck, Captain Dillon, Miller, Wilczynski, Thomson
SECOND ROW:— Kasper, Kmiecik, Young, Cook, Watson, Kinsock, C. Daisy, Eder, McShane.

Absent — Kenneth Moser and Joseph Kish.

CENTRAL has again suffered the loss of a football and basketball coach; Willie Philips has departed for service in other fields. While this is a loss to the school, the best wishes of all at Central go with Mr. Philips.

Good luck, Willie!

Here is the GOOD NEWS We have been informed by the office that negotiations are under way to secure the services of a Notre Dame star who played halfback for the Ramblers last year and the year before. Joe Gleason, of Chicago, is the man. Central will be most fortunate if this alliance materializes. We have heard that Joe is well-equipped for coaching not one, but several sports. Let us hope that the deal is completed very soon.

BASKET BALL

Coach William Phillips, with a Central quintet that developed in great strides with every game finished a successful season of 37-38 with an average of .500. The team bumped up against many a stiff test but came through with flying colors.

The first week out on the waters of the season gave us a glimpse of the craft that was to be OUR team. It survived the first stormy weekend by defeating St. Mary's of Collegeville 29 to 28.

The following weekend the ship ran into a squall, being defeated by Thornton 32 to 37. The following night St. Mary's of Decatur almost blew us off our course by a score of 33 to 25. The Marmion team followed this by winning 25 to 23 on the large Aurora court.

On December 17 Hobart's tried and true destroyer crossed our path and after being behind 27 to 19 at the third quarter, added steam and avoided disaster by winning 34 to 30.

Tolleston's smart ballhandling quintet set us back by 13 points, the score being 46 to 33. Over Christmas vacation many of our former stars attempted to overturn our boat but they were shoved aside 35 to 28.

Miller too, was shoved aside — 45 to 23.

St. Patrick's of Kankakee furnished a stiffer test but they also suffered defeat though only after a double overtime. Score — 25 to 23.

On January 18th, Marmion was bombarded and left floundering by the score of 53 to 33.

Griffith set us back 33 to 29. Tolleston the only team to beat Central twice, defeated us 34 to 24.

St. Patrick's of Chicago was left adrift after a bitter 51 to 33 defeat. St. Mary's of Michigan City evened their score with us by beating us 31 to 29.

On February 18, our last scheduled game — St. Patrick's of Kankakee was played and they were again left afloat but defeated by a score of 41 to 38.

In the Indiana Catholic High School Tournament Central was slated to meet Rietz Memorial of Evansville, a ceded favorite. After a nip and tuck battle, our 37-38 season was ended by a score of 22 to 26 in favor of Rietz.

—Edward Fleming

GIRLS' SPORTS

The girls attained a new height in sports activities this year under the capable supervision of Sister Philomena. Throughout the year the Freshmen and Sophomores were taught the fundamentals of baseball, track, tennis and basketball, as well as exercises in drills and various new games while the Juniors and Seniors did their best to remain two steps ahead of these up-and-coming athletes.

The girls' varsity basketball team played two games this season, losing both times to St. Patrick's of Kankakee. The score of the first game played — on our home court was 19 to 5, and the score of the second game, which was played three weeks later at Kankakee was 16 to 9.

The annual inter-class tournament proved to be the most exciting event of the year, with the Seniors taking the title by a narrow margin. The final results of the tournament.

On June 11th, 1937, finally arrived the event we had awaited for three years — more or less — OUR Prom! Kenneth Moser, General Chairman, with the assistance of the committees headed by Anne Avelis, Lillian Schreiner, Carmellita Knight, Rita Moloney, Jack Dillon and Frank Maguire carried on the tradition that each Central Prom is better than the last.

The gym was transformed into a Rainbow Room, softly lighted in colors of green and gold. The most crowded corner proved to be the north west in which delicious punch was served, and toward which a general exodus took place at the conclusion of each dance. Another novelty which was introduced at our Prom was the very popular idea of having each couple announced by Tom McCarthy, Master of Ceremonies, as they came up for the last figure of the Grand March, which was led by James Lauerman, and Kenneth Moser, Class Presidents and their respective guests.

P R O M

ROUND-UP

On October 31st, the Men's Club, aided and abetted by the Senior Class, staged a real Western Round-Up. The name, which provided the theme, was chosen by the Seniors, because it was just that, a rounding up of Centralites' parents, relatives and friends. The life-size pictures of cowboys and cowgirls, which were the work of Fred Eyrich, Bob Hill, Frank Maguire, and Wayne Miller, carried out the ranch idea in fine style. The ceiling of Fall leaves—and some that didn't fall, was put up by Jack Dillon and his cornstalk bringer-inners, and seemed to bring the great outdoors right into the gym.

TRI-F'S DANCE

The Tri-F's—Junior Girls' Club to you—gave a Mardi Gras Dance on Monday, February 28th, as near to Shrove Tuesday as a crowded Central Activities schedule would permit. The dance was the last of the gaily planned pre-Lenten activities and established the reputation of the Tri-F's as capable and very charming hostesses.

The decoration of serpentine, multi-colored balloon, and drifts of confetti, were so novel, so unusual, that the dance would undoubtedly have been a success even minus the outstanding music of the orchestra the Tri-F's engaged through Tony Bonaventura. The members of the committee which was responsible for this enjoyable evening were Genese Hayes, Ruth Schneider, Shirley Veith, Virginia Scholl, Margery Schloer, Rose-Mary Heckleman, Pauline Schaertl, Betty Clusserath, Regina Lannon, Mary Zimmerman, Rita Jane Carlson, Mary Rita Joyce, and Mary Frances Reynolds.

"HENRY TELLS THE TRUTH"

A very entertaining and successful comedy, "Henry Tells The Truth", was the first play of the year given by the Dramatic Club. The audience was amused by the plights of poor Henry, who loses all of his friends, and even his sweetheart, Elaine, because of his refusal to compromise with his ideals.

After many enjoyable incidents Elaine finds that the truth, even though it sometimes hurts, is the best policy after all, and she again becomes engaged to Henry for the traditional happy ending.

FRESHMAN PLAY

In keeping with the season, the Freshman Class under the direction of Sister Mary Annice presented the Freshman Christmas Play, "The Birds' Christmas Carol" on December 18, 1937. The story of the little cripple, Carol Bird, who asked the Ruggleses to Christmas dinner, was dramatized in fine style by these new Centralites. They established a high precedent for Christmas plays to come, in their characterization of the Kate Douglas Wiggin classic.

After seeing the exceptionally good performance of these newcomers, the Dramatic Club is looking forward to a great future.

SOPHOMORE PLAY

In the presentation of the Lenten spectacle "The Alabaster Box", the Sophomores outdid all previous performances. The result was that the play's intensity was heightened by the effective acting and unusual staging of the well chosen cast. The play presented on Tuesday of Holy Week, was the most suitable beginning for the solemnities that were to follow.

The singing of the Choral Club, directed by Father Junk, was included in the entertainment between acts of the play. Credit is due Joseph Nowak and Stanley Bogusz, stage managers, who arranged the settings and who were responsible for the striking light-effects of the play. Lorraine Lambros had charge of properties.

SENIOR DANCE

The Senior Dance, held on February 21st, was "Team" in theme, the drawings of Wayne Miller, Fred Eyrich, Frank Maguire, and Bill Watson again carrying out the idea by portraying the muscular prowess of the football and basketball players, and the vim, vigor, and vitality of our Cheerleaders. The various committees, headed by Patricia Smith and Jack Dillon outdid themselves and knew the night of the dance, that its success, and the effectiveness and originality of the Blue-and-Gold decorations, were well worth all the labor expended.

ANNIE LAURIE

The play, based on the famous ballad, was presented by the Dramatic Club in February, under the direction of Sister Edward. The play, a story of true love which ran anything but smooth, was of a different type than any heretofore given at Central. The players, who numbered many newcomers, were highly satisfactory, and an evening of excellent dramatic entertainment was enjoyed by all present. The cast was unusually large, but included among its stellar performers Shirley Veith, Anthony Tramm, Jeanne O'Keefe, Tom Manion, Joseph Radigan, Hallie Mudro, Ruth DeBold, Robert Schumacher, Carmelita Knight, Thomas Holman, Helen Sullivan, Joseph Utofka, Richard Gumeny, and Patricia Lordier.

"ANNIE LAURIE"

SEATED:— Hufford, Benchik, Hepner, Joyce, Hisey, Barrett.

STANDING:— Engleton, Schumacher, Fleming, Sulicz, Avelis.

"THEY LIVED LIKE KINGS" this year's Senior Play, second in a chain of all-Senior plays, was of such a quality as to lead us to hope that this custom will be never discontinued. The play, one of many uproarious situations and clever dialogue, was dramatized exceedingly well by a cast doing credit to the skillful direction of Sister Edward. Members of the cast were: Phyllis Hepner, Rita Hufford, Ruth Barrett, Marie Sulicz, John Joyce, Edward Fleming, Donald Hisey, Frank Benchik, Robert Schumacher, James Engleton.

THE SENIOR PLAY

The annual Catholic Central SPRING FESTIVAL was held this year on April 28th, 29th, and 30th. This affair is always an occasion of merrymaking and moneymaking, but the latest seems to have enjoyed more success than any in years, both socially and financially. The "Big Ticket" sale, always a hotly contested race, proved even more exciting than that of last year. In recognition of their high totals, two classes received awards, Junior A., and B. The many different concessions contained many new and interesting games and contests. The intense earnestness of the Student Body is reflected in each and every one of these pictures.
